ORDER

In compliance of the order dated 06.03.2019, we have been informed that reports on behalf of Department of Medical and Health, Public Health Engineering Department, Water Resources Department and Ground Water Department have been filed on 02.05.2019.

It is also submitted that an affidavit on behalf of Pollution Control Board had been filed earlier in the month of 06.04.2019.

The Learned Counsel for the State of Rajasthan has further submitted that interim environmental compensation of the amount of Rs. 30 crores has also been deposited. It is also submitted that the said compensation shall later on be recovered from the defaulting industries. She has also submitted that a report on behalf of the Agricultural Department would be submitted within three months. It has also been submitted that the performance guarantee would be submitted by 31.05.2019.

In so far as the report submitted by the Department of Medical and Health is concerned the same is interim in nature and it has been submitted on behalf of the Additional Chief Secretary, Medical and Health Department that a detailed report in this regard would be submitted after conducting detailed survey. Let this detailed report be submitted within two months.

List these matters on 08th July, 2019.

I.A. No. 212/2019

The Learned Counsel for Pollution Control Board submits that they would be filing their reply to this application within a week.

List I.A. No. 212/2019 on 17th May, 2019.
