Office Order

State Board has delegated duties/functions/powers assigned time to time under different Acts/Rules including decision on different type of applications like, consent to establish, consent to operate, authorisation, registration and issuing directions for regulating/ prohibiting activities/ operations / processes etc. under the provisions of various sets of Acts and Rules to Chairperson, Member Secretary and Regional Officers of the Board. The State Board also from time to time reviews/revises the delegation of powers from Head Office to Regional Office and vice versa.

It is, therefore, directed that whenever there is a change of delegation or in such cases of refusal/revocation etc. as per delegation where the other office is to deal with the proposal, it may be ensured the relevant physical file may be transferred to the concerned office along with the transfer of it in electronic mode/online within 3 days. The office transferring the file may retain a copy of the file for record.
